A SURRENDER AND A VICTORY.

A tariff bill has been passed. It is not a real tariff reform bill, but it will be a way to the defeat of the conspicuous evil of McKinleyism. It is not the bill called for by the Democratic National platform of 1892. It is not the bill which the people expected when they cast their votes on the strength of the promises contained in that platform. But, at least, a long and tedious period of compromise has been ended, and an unusual cause of business depression has been removed. It may be confidently expected that an immediate revival of the country's commercial and industrial interests will follow.

The final passing of the bill was both a surrender and a victory. The House of Representatives receded from a position in which it had the support of the people and the Administration. It yielded to a force which was distinctly arrayed against popular interests and Democratic principles. But, in yielding, the House undoubtedly spoiled a conspiracy existing in the Senate, through machinations of the Trusts, to prevent any tariff legislation whatever.

It was calculated that the bill had been made so objectionable that the House would not pass it. But, in yielding, the Senate and do what was to remain obdurate in conference until all attempts at legislation should be abandoned, and McKinleyism be left still triumphant. This pretty scheme has been thwarted, and in that fact and with what benefits the new measure will undoubtedly bring to the nation's traders and workers, the people must for the time being content themselves.

THE POLICE MACHINE.

Nothing more remarkable or interesting has followed the hunting down of police corruption in New York City than the revelation of how thoroughly the force is permeated with the principles of bossism and boss machination. No political leader of a district is better provided with "healers" and watchmen than the police machine. The police machine is the police machine, and whatever they may be called publicly or privately. The system of agencies and sub-agencies is seemingly perfect. The police machine is constructed to work without a hitch, and as long as it is left to the undisturbed care of the original machinists.

A preliminary shaking up has been administered to the system of wheels within wheels by the Lexow Committee and its counsel. But the machine is not broken yet. It has not yet fallen over. When that Committee resumes its session it will find from the record of events transpiring during its recess that the belts and cogs are still in place, and that any shadow of turning from the same and straight which marked the earlier proceedings will be quickly followed by a resumption at the "works," full or partial, as the encouragement may be greater or less.

BANKER COMMITS SUICIDE.

He and his Son Were Liable to Criminal Prosecution.

(By Associated Press.)

EL RENO, I. T., Aug. 13.—J. N. Beacom, President of the Farmers and Merchants' Bank of Watonga, on Saturday night committed suicide by shooting. His son, C. W. Beacom, is missing, and is said to have been in the city yesterday afternoon. The bank was organized by father and son, soon after which the former left the city and went to the South Centre, Kan., where he held a responsible position.

SUICIDE AT NIAGARA FALLS.

Unknown Man Jumps from the Bridge Over the Hydraulic Canal.

NIAGARA FALLS, AUG. 14.—An unknown man jumped off the bridge across the hydraulic canal at Niagara Falls yesterday afternoon. A number of workmen near by saw him jump and threw him ropes and plank, but he did not try to save himself. The body has not yet been recovered.

Telegraphers' Chief in St. Louis.

(By Associated Press.)

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 14.—W. J. Powell, Grand Chief of the Brotherhood of Railway Telegraphers, accompanied by Michael M. Dolphin, his assistant, and T. W. Barron, Chairman of the Telegraphers' District Committee of the Missouri Pacific System, arrived here yesterday. Powell is a native of New York, and has been in the service of the Missouri Pacific for many years. He is a well-known figure in the telegraphing community.

Levi P. Morton is coming home from Switzerland.

He will visit the political affairs in New York State before deciding whether to attempt a climb to the Governorship.

The Lexow Committee solemnly pledged itself that no witness should be persecuted in consequence of testimony given before the Committee.

It is keeping its pledge.

Helen announced that they feel able to elect a yellow dog as Governor this year.

The Republicans of the Empire State are not so sure.

The tariff struggle has shown Democracy its weak points.

They should be strengthened for the struggles which are yet to come.

There is no hope for Caserio, slayer of Carnot.

He must pay the penalty. There never should be any hope for the willful murderer in any land.

Police corruption is not a plant of ordinary growth.

It is not downward that the investigator is to search for the roots. Look upward.

The people of New York City have principles to vote for.

Give them a ticket which represents those principles.

A garbage cremating plant would save the money and spare the nostrils of many tax-paying New Yorkers.

The income tax provision is still in the bill. That at least, is a gain for the cause of equitable taxation.

The tariff has been fought for tariff reform and lost, for the time being, than never to have fought at all.

The new Chinese treaty is a good deal like the opening of the Chinese war with Japan. China is not in it.

Even the cold water which has been thrown on tariff reform will help to revive fainting industry.

It is not yet reported that symptoms of pantaloons have been discovered in Justice Diviner.

From present indications it appears that Messieurs Jackson and Corbett will continue to handle each other without gloves.

Those wild horses at Washington have stopped. But just look at the band wagon!

Does Mayor Gilroy expect to get a lesson in harmony from the peace of Europe?

Fassett and Milholland represent the in and out of the Republican running.

The police investigator loves a shining mark—the Captain's gold badge.

Events do not move rapidly as regards the bridging of the North River.

No one doubts the sincerity of Mayor Gilroy's appeal for harmony.

Yesterday was an unlucky 13th for the "conservative" Senators.

If they are still Giants, they are welcome home again.

There is still one thing for Congress to do—adjourn.

Half a tariff loaf is much better than no bread.

Thus far the Sugar Trust has the laugh.

Now let business get to booming.

Well, Congress has acted.

ALL WERE STARVING.

Braunstein's Children Sent to an Orphan Asylum.

Police Station Steers in the Lee Avenue Police Court, Williamsburg, this morning committed David Braunstein's five children to the Hebrew Orphan Asylum. Their names are Samuel, nine; David, ten; Ada, seven; Annie, seven; and Rose, four years. For the last six months they have lived in miserable quarters with their father at 23 Johnson St., where he has been for some time. Braunstein, who is a wood-carver, lost his position a few months ago. About the only thing he has been able to do since then is to beg for food. His children are now in the hands of the police, and will be placed in the orphan asylum.

Braunstein on Saturday took the last of his furniture and possessions to the pawnshop.

He had nothing to eat, and his children had nothing to eat. The police station and the pawnshop were the only places where they could find food.

TO SUE MRS. SALLADE.

Mrs. Cox Causes Excitement at the "Purifiers" Meeting.

Mary the Cook Says Michael the Coachman Deceived Her.

She Intends to Get $10,000 Worth of Satisfaction in Court.

And this time 'tis no less than Oscar Hammerstein's coachman, Michael McDonald, who is charged with basely trifling with the affections of a lady, a Miss Mary Kelly, a cook in a high-toned Fifth Avenue brown-stone town millionaire residence.

Mary Kelly's residence is accused of having won her heart, betrayed and deserted her. She tried to bring him back to her, but he simply sniggered at her. Derisively he splashed mud on her from the Hammersteinian barouche wheels as he flicked up the team of fast-trotting black tails, while she stood on the sidewalk and gazed brokenheartedly at the alleged faith defector.

Therefore she related the complaint to Attorney Robert N. Waite, who to-day completed the papers in a suit brought by Miss Kelly against Michael McDonald for breach of promise of marriage and other injuries. The papers will file in the Court of Common Pleas and an order for McDonald's arrest asked for.

She gets forth that she is about thirty years old, and that McDonald is a widower, somewhat her senior. She says that she met him at a party given by a mutual friend, a great friend of the complainant. When Mrs. McDonald died, McDonald had pronounced upon the fact that he was a widower, and she, the complainant, at the time, she states that in December last he urged her to marry him. She says that she did so, and on April 23 he set the date of the marriage for July 10, and shortly afterwards he left her.

Miss Kelly can assign no reason for McDonald's sudden change of heart.

ATCHISON'S NEW RECEIVER.

It is Said Col. C. K. Holliday, of Topeka, Will Be the Man.

(By Associated Press.)

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Aug. 14.—It is announced here to-day on reliable authority that Col. C. K. Holliday, of Topeka, Kan., will be appointed by Judge Caldwell receiver of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe to succeed J. W. Reihner.

Mr. Holliday's appointment would be eminently satisfactory to the West, and especially to Kansas. He is as well and favorably known in New Mexico, Arizona and California as he is in Kansas.

Col. Holliday obtained the charter of the Santa Fe road in 1853, which now lies in the hands of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe.

He was the first President of the road, and has been identified with its interests for over thirty-five years.

It was through his efforts that, in 1863, the Kansas grant of 3,000,000 acres was obtained. Col. Holliday is said to be the choice of the American stockholders.

He is a man of high character, and is well known to the stockholders of the road.

ATTACHMENT HOLDS GOOD.

James H. Rodgers' Motion to Have It Vacated Is Denied.

Justice Truax, of the Supreme Court, denied to-day the motion of James H. Rodgers, former proprietor of the Hotel Castleton, to vacate an attachment which Edward Regensberg obtained against him in an action to recover a bill for goods sold for the use of the hotel.

The attachment was granted on an affidavit of Abraham Zipser to the effect that James H. Rodgers had moved a truckload of liquors from the hotel to a Motz stable to defraud creditors.

Rodgers denied the charge, and said that the liquors were for the use of the hotel. He claims the liquors were removed by one of his clerks, and that he had no knowledge of the matter.

The court, however, found the affidavit to be true, and the attachment was held good.

Hamilton Arrested for Using a Broomstick on a Milkman.

(By Associated Press.)

CINCINNATI, Aug. 14.—The decisive action of Congress on the tariff started active operations in taking whiskey out of bond here last night. The receipts in the Treasury Department for duty on internal revenue, and yesterday exceeded $60,000. In Cincinnati, Ky., the receipts were $10,000.

At last night $500 barrels were ordered released immediately to take advantage of the new tariff.

Two dozen extra saucers have been ordered to be sent to the Treasury Department. To-day the revenue receipts are expected to be very large from the release of the whiskey.

(By Associated Press.)

LONDON, Aug. 14.—During the past few days over four hundred anarchists have landed in this city.

They are mostly from the Continent, and are very busy watching over the new comers.

The Scotland Yard men are assisted by a large draft of detectives from the different police divisions.
